

WNY Lama Judging Workshop

Schedule

Our Instructor

Hosted at
Buffalo Creek Llamas
360 Park Rd.
Arcade, NY 14009

Tami Lash Lash's Unique Animals

Tami lives in Manitou Beach, MI. Much of Tami's life is devoted to the wonderful world of Llamas. She also enjoys working with youth and instructing Judging Clinics. She has served on various committees for both Show Associations. Tami enjoys judging and has judged the nation's largest Futurities, National, and Regional Shows.

Saturday, June 18

- 8:00 a.m. Welcome and refreshments
- 8:30 a.m. What do you want to learn from this workshop? (performance, showmanship)
- 9:00 a.m. Performance Classes
- General information and understanding of scoring
 - Do's & don'ts per obstacle
 - Being consistent in scoring
 - Knowing the course and what is expected on each obstacle
 - Safety concerns
- 10:00 a.m. Break
- 10:15 a.m. Live llama performance demo/discussions
Start judging of Performance classes
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch (provided)
- 12:45 p.m. Judging of Performance classes, continued
- 2:15 p.m. Break
- 2:30 p.m. Showmanship
- What to look for, tips
 - Judging Showmanship classes
- 5:00 p.m. Dinner (provided)
- 6:00 p.m. Performance show - this will be a fun time of performance showing where participants will get the opportunity to judge each other on a performance course.

Sunday, June 19

- 8:00 a.m. Welcome and refreshments
- 8:30 a.m. What do you want to learn from this workshop? (halter)
- 9:00 a.m. Importance of Conformation and Movement
- 10:00 a.m. Break
- 10:15 a.m. Importance of Conformation and Movement, continued
Live Llama demo
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch (provided)
- 12:45 p.m. Halter judging and showing
- Conformation - what to look for, prioritizing
 - Determining proper class entry
 - Ring procedure
 - How to handle the unexpected. What do you do?
- 1:30 p.m. Judging of Halter classes
- 3:00 p.m. Break
- 3:15 p.m. Judging of Halter classes (cont'd)
- TBD Wrap up and final comments